The Reverend Father Elias Ferzli,
Esteemed Members of the Parish Council and all Faithful of St. Philip Orthodox Church of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada

“Rejoice in the Lord always, again, I say rejoice.” (Phll. 4:4)

With these joyful words from St. Paul, we greet you and rejoice with you as celebrate the Twenty-fifth anniversary of your parish. I vividly remember the day in 1981 when we consecrated St. Philip’s Temple as the first Antiochian Church in Western Canada. This is indeed a glorious day in the history of your parish because it is the culmination of much hard work, devotion, dedication and perseverance. We thank God for the wonderful things which He has done through you.

The founders of St. Philip’s Parish surely deserve our prayers, gratitude and admiration for a task very well done. We thank your beloved pastor, the Reverend Father Elias Ferzli, for his dedication to your parish. We also commend your parish council and all the good people who have sacrificed of their time and means for the wellbeing of St. Philip’s.

You have accomplished much in the past twenty-five years; however, your success in the years to come will depend on your response to the challenges of the future.

Congratulations and may the Almighty God continue to crown all your endeavors with success.

Paternally yours,

The Reverend Elias Fezli, Souheil Bitar and the esteemed members of the Parish Council, and the all faithful of St. Philip Church:

My most heart-felt congratulations to all of you during this celebration of your parish's 25th anniversary! As your Father in Christ, I am proud of you for the spiritual growth that has occurred within your community over the last few years. God is doing great things for you, and He will make you prosper as you continue to be purified through His grace and mercy. You will, through the power of the Holy Spirit, build upon the hard work and sacrifices of your founders to create a glorious future. May God bless them even as He blesses you!

I also salute my spiritual son, Father Elias, who has served God with honor and dignity since his arrival at St. Philip parish. He is a man of good character, blessed with many gifts from God, most especially his deep Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. His patient love for all of you has become a medicine to heal the wounded and encourage the faithful. He is supported by his beloved Khouriyeh, Nada, and their beautiful children, Adib, Mariam, Christina and Elena.

It is my most fervent prayer that all of you continue to grow both in terms of your spiritual lives and evangelization. I foresee a time when God will bless you with many, many more people seeking God's love and mercy, which they will see in your radiant faces. Do not cease to serve one another and your community, knowing that God is watching over you.

Remember my love for all of you, and the confidence I have in Christ that this community will become a center-point for spirituality in Edmonton.

Your Father in Christ,

+ JOSEPH
Bishop of Los Angeles and the West
Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America
June 14 – 1981, is a very special and unforgettable day in the life of St. Philip Church. On that day, a small number of simple, innocent, honest, and faithful Orthodox people, rejoiced together with their beloved shepherd, Metropolitan Philip, when His Eminence consecrated St. Philip Church as the first Antiochian Orthodox Church in western Canada. That day is still inscribed in the memories, and preserved in the hearts of those who witnessed that joyful celebration.

Many of those, are dearly missed and remembered today, and some are joyfully present among us. Some of us were born into the church, and others joined the family of our church in different recent times, and I am one of them. But we are all one family, we have one Father, the Lord God, one Savior Jesus Christ, the same Holy Spirit guiding us, and we also have one mother, the Holy Church.

Today, as God have brought us together, as one family, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the consecration of our church, we rejoice, as we see the tree of our family, prospering, blossoming, bearing fruit, and having its roots deeply embed in the ground of Edmonton. We rejoice as we see new immigrants from the Middle East bound together in worship with Canadian born. We rejoice, as we see our Holy Orthodox faith spreading out, to a new Antiochian Orthodox mission in Fort Saskatchewan that shares with us our faith, and our life of worship, not being interrupted by the differences of language or culture.

My beloved, during my two years of serving St. Philip Church in Edmonton, I learned more than I taught. I experienced a Christian life, based on faith, love and blessing. These are the foundations on which St. Philip Church was built. The few people, who founded our church, had nothing but a strong faith, a sincere love, and a heavenly blessing, which they received through their spiritual father, Metropolitan Philip. They struggled a lot for many years before they built the church, and when His Eminence saw their faith, their commitment and their love, He gave them His blessing to start a mission, and in a very short time the church was built.

The power of faith, and the bond of love which they had, was enough to surpass all difficulties and face any kind of problems or temptations. That's what made St. Philip Church survive for 25 years, and that's what will make us survive in the years to come.

Your Grace Sayedna Joseph, we, the family of St. Philip Church, are very proud today, to celebrate with you and with all our friends, our silver Jubilee. We are very proud to declare our Holy Orthodox faith, to renew our commitment, to express our love to each other and to the world around us. We are also very proud to be blessed by your presence, your prayers, your leadership, and your fatherly love.

I said earlier that in Edmonton I learned more than I taught. I taught in words and I learned more by living the same words, with very loving, generous, and honest people. The deep experience of a true life of faith and love that I have in Edmonton, tells me today, and every day, that Christ is indeed in our midst, He is and He shall be for ever.

Fr. Elias Ferzli – Pastor.

Dear Fathers, Beloved Parishioners, Dear Brothers and Sisters!

I sincerely congratulate you on the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the foundation of St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church in Edmonton!

We rightly call the Antiochian Orthodox Church a missionary Church. Antioch was a place where Apostolic preaching about Jesus Christ started, and from there extended worldwide. Therefore, it is not surprising that 25 years ago, here in Edmonton, in one of the distant corners of the world, the Antiochian parish of St. Apostle Phillip was established.

In our day, the church service is formidably and responsibly. Looking at good fruits of the 25 years of your parish, we can, by a word of the Apostle, “always give thanks to God... because the message about Christ has become so firmly established in you that you have not failed to received a single blessing” (2 Corinthians 1: 6-7).

Dear Brothers and Sisters!

We believe deeply that your labours, which you contribute for the preservation and promotion of Orthodoxy among your countrymen and among people of other dominations, will always be successful, and that God’s help will continue in the life of your church.

Once again I congratulate you, dear fathers, brothers and sisters, with today’s glorious Anniversary; and I wish you God’s mercy, blessed help, spiritual happiness, that you will keep your faith in the Apostolic way, continuing your unity “by sincere love, by the word of truth, by the power of God” (2 Corinthians 6: 6-7).

On behalf of the first Orthodox parish in Edmonton, St Barbara’s Russian Orthodox Cathedral, whose centenary we solemnly celebrated recently, we prayerfully sing to your young temple, which has very ancient roots of Orthodox belief and tradition: Many glorious and blessed years!

With love in the Lord,

IOV,
Bishop of Kashira,
Administrator of the Patriarchal Parishes in Canada
A Message from Laurie Hawn, Member of Parliament for Edmonton Centre

I am pleased to be able to offer congratulations to the St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church on behalf of myself, the Government of Canada, and the Right Honourable Stephen Harper, Prime Minister of Canada.

This is to honour the 25th Anniversary of the consecration of the first Arabic-speaking Antiochian Church in Western Canada. It has been the realization of a vision on the part of the Christian community in Edmonton and helps preserve both the faith and the ethnic heritage of its parishioners.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone involved with the anniversary celebration and the production of this souvenir book which commemorates the occasion.

In particular, I also wish to highlight the efforts of all the volunteers involved in this project. Their hard work illustrates the great civic spirit that is a hallmark of the city of Edmonton.

Please accept my own best wishes and encouragement for the future.

Sincerely,

Laurie Hawn, M.P.

CONGRATULATIONS
St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church

On behalf of the Province of Alberta and the constituents of Edmonton-Meadowlark, it is my great pleasure to offer congratulations to your church on the occasion of your 25th anniversary.

A church is just another building until it is suffused with the spirit of those who believe. The construction of St. Philip 25 years ago was a great accomplishment, but it pales in significance to the building of a strong and thriving parish family. Bricks and mortar are strong, but not as strong as faith and love.

Congratulations and best regards.

A History of St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church
Celebrating 25 Years

Over twenty five years ago, approximately 17 Antiochian Orthodox Christian families residing in Edmonton, Alberta had a dream to establish a church that would allow them to observe their faith, and to establish a spiritual foundation for their children, and for generations to follow. While other Orthodox churches were in existence in the city, none conducted prayers, in whole or in part, in Arabic - the native tongue of these few families. Most members of the group were bilingual, however, many of the elder members were not fluent in English, thereby making it difficult to totally comprehend pastor sermons and prayers offered in English by other Orthodox churches. Hence, the road began to the set and implement goals that would make their dream a reality.

After only a few years of small scale fundraising, in September of 1978, the group established a Mission under the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America. St. Philip Mission was the first step towards the establishment of a church. It clearly demonstrated the practical and the legal intentions to work towards the founding of a church, including the assignment of a full time pastor. From this point forward, much faith, dedication and hard work went into the realization of their dream.

Through tireless fundraising by means of bake sales, raffles, charity dinners, and member donations, after only a couple of years, the status of the organization was elevated to that of Church. While an actual building did not yet exist, members took the opportunity to practice their faith by renting halls and church basements to conduct the Divine Liturgy every Sunday, and observe other Orthodox feasts and celebrations. In addition, organizations, including: the Antiochian Women; Church Choir; Teen SOYO; and, Church School were established to enhance and build upon the spiritual foundation of the Church. These years were also marked by members donating their time and services, and by leveraging their contacts for the donation of building materials and services – all of which led to the commencement of the construction of the Church building in 1980. The building was completed in June 1981, and on the 14th day of that month and year, St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church was officially consecrated by the Most Reverend Metropolitan Philip. It was the first Church in the Antiochian Christian Archdiocese of North America to be established in Western Canada.

Today, the Church building, itself, with a few renovations and improvements, survives in the City of Edmonton at 15804-98 Avenue. Since its inception, St. Philip has grown to include many families. Today the community consists of approximately 70 families, and over 170 individuals. Also, the organizations within the Church have grown and remain strong in the vital role that they play. Clearly, the Church serves as the spiritual foundation of the community; it caters to its bilingual population in both English and Arabic and to the new generation of youth in predominantly English; and, it also helps to preserve many cherished ethnic traditions. It is through cooperation, hard work, sacrifice, and a commitment to God that St. Philip Church is a dream come true – a reality celebrating 25 years. And, it is these qualities, and the will of God, that will carry the Church forward for many more years to come.

Your Grace Bishop Joseph,
Your Grace Bishop Iov,
Reverend Father Elias,
Very Reverend Father Joseph, Reverend clergy, distinguished guests,
And brothers and sisters in Christ.

Good evening, my name is Rabiha Salloum, President of the Antiochian Women of St. Philip Church. On behalf of the ladies I would like to extend a warm welcome to all of you in joining us for our 25th anniversary celebration. I am grateful to have been a part of the organization since it started on July 25, 1978. On that evening, we held our first ladies meeting at the late George and Laure Abboud’s home. The first committee was elected that same night.

These ladies immigrated to Canada from different parts of the Middle East. With God’s guidance, faith and love we accomplished a great deal. We were committed to build a church to pass on the gift of our Antiochian Christian heritage to children and grandchildren. We held many bake sales in malls. We prepared the food at our homes. We catered banquets of up to 500 people; met monthly in members’ homes.

25 years later, we continue to work hard serving our church and are committed to spiritual growth and fellowship.

Today, our main goal as an Antiochian women are to guide though example for the young women in our church and give them the gift of love, faith, support and strengthen to continue our legacy at St. Philip’s for many more 25 anniversaries to come.

I ask you all to remember us in your prayers, to give us the strength and endurance to carry the tradition of our ancestors.

Thank you and God bless you all!

Rabiha Salloum
President of the Antiochian Women of St. Philip Church.
Good evening, Sayedna Joseph, Honored guests, and Father Elias,

My name is Joanne Olsen and I have the privilege of being the Church School director for St. Philip Orthodox Church. I feel truly blessed to be able to work with the children, the future of our church, in this capacity.

I would like to start with a piece of scripture. In Matthew 19:14, it says, “And Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” We all know how much Jesus loves children and in Church School, we strive for each child to get to know Christ and to love Christ. Let the children come to church to get to know Christ. Our mission is for each child to develop a personal relationship with God by learning his word.

As Christians, we believe that every child is a unique gift from God. That all children are created by God in God's image and are created good. All children are a gift to our whole community and are vital to the preservation of our church. As Christ modeled for us, each one of us plays a vital role in educating our children, this teaching happens on an ongoing basis, not just on Sundays. Use every opportunity you can to teach your child about Christ throughout the day. There is and can be no church without children and their families.

Just as God has nurtured the church, so too are we to nurture children in the love of God made manifest in Jesus Christ and to teach them about the love, grace and fellowship of God. We are called to teach them to know and love the Lord, encouraging their spirit and the work of the Holy Spirit, and tending to their physical, emotional and spiritual needs.

Let the children be conscious that they are members of Christ’s family! Let the children come to church and grow to love church for they are our future.

Joanne Olsen
Message from the Fellowship

Your Grace Bishop Joseph
Your Grace Bishop IOV
Dear Fr. Elias
Very Reverend and Reverend Clergy
Dear Friends

From all the fellowship and the youth we would like to welcome His Grace Bishop Joseph, and thank him for joining us in this time of celebration.

Sayedna you have supported this church through thick and thin, and you have always given us your blessing and your wisdom. Your commitment to the church and the Orthodox faith has continued to strengthen us and to allow growth in our church. By appointing our pastor Father Elias you reestablished our community. Not only was Father Elias able to reenergize our church, he was able to overcome the daunting task of reenergizing the young adults and youth.

We are reminded today by the words that Your Grace left us with, two years ago in your last visit, when you appointed Fr. Elias as our pastor, and you said that “Jesus comes from the future” and it is the future that stabilizes the church. At that time, we felt that your words were addressed to us directly, as we are the youth in the church, and I’m proud to repeat today the same words, and to declare the strong commitment of our “Fellowship of St. John the Divine” and “Teen Soyo” to work for the future of our church, truly worshiping Jesus Christ who comes from the future.

So from all the Fellowship and the Teen Soyo in our church, thank you and God Bless.

Phillip Ferzli
ST. PHILIP TEEN SOYO – EDMONTON

“So remember your creator in the days of your youth…” Eccl. 12:1

St. Philip Teen SOYO had a very successful year in 2005/2006 under the spiritual care of our priest, Fr. Elias Ferzli, and the under the guidance of Fady Sakkab, our Youth Director.

Some of our accomplishments for the past year are:
We have had record attendance in our weekly Bible studies. We really enjoyed our studies in the book of Acts of the Apostles and as a result, our team placed 3rd in the Bible Bowl at the Parish Life Conference in San Diego.

The SOYO started off the New Year with a fresh commitment to love, obey and to serve the LORD. We realize that the teens are the future of the church and as such we made a strong commitment to learn more about our faith and to show others how we can act in accordance with our faith. In addition to our weekly gathering, we had special full day retreats that covered a number of interesting topics. The first retreat we had was on the topic of the Sacraments of the Church. Another retreat that we really enjoyed was a special presentation by Archpriest Joseph Sakkab on the rich history and symbolism of the Holy Orthodox Church. Another retreat covered the topic of abortion as well as other issues that face the youth of today.

As a group, we were really happy to be able to sponsor a young needy two year old boy in Achrafieh, Lebanon; through the Orthodox Children’s Relief Fund. It was a wonderful experience to know that we are making a difference in a child’s life.

Teen SOYO with the assistance our Antiochian Women cooked and served a meal to about 320 people of Edmonton’s homeless. What an experience that was! It was a true blessing to all involved.

The SOYO also is active in our church services. During the Lenten season, Teen SOYO participated in the worship by serving in the altar, reciting the readings and the chanting.

On this special occasion, the 25th anniversary of our beloved church, we wish to express our gratitude to Almighty God for allowing our church to grow, and we pray that He will help us to continue to be strong participants in every aspect of our church for His Glory and Honor. We also like to thank his Grace Bishop JOSEPH for his guidance and prayers. And of course we can’t forget to thank Fr. Elias, our priest and Fady Sakkab, our youth director, for all the time, effort, care and knowledge that they have given us during the past years. Also, we would like to thank our Antiochian women, and last but not least, we thank our parish council for their support and for allowing us the chance to compete in the Bible Bowl in San Diego.

CONGRATULATIONS AND HAPPY 25TH ANNIVERSARY ST. PHILIP’S!!!

Gaby Ferzli,
Teen SOYO president
On the 25th anniversary of St. Philip Antiochian Orthodox Church, we renew our dedication to serving our church, and we invoke our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, to grant us to praise and glorify His Holy name, “for meet it is that at all times He shouldest be praised with righteous voices.”

Your Grace, Bishop IOV, the Very Reverend and Reverend Fathers, Reverend Deacons, esteemed officers and members of the Parish Council, officers and members of the organizations, and all the faithful of St. Philip Church:

This weekend, we celebrate the prayers, hard work and sacrifice so many of you and the founders of this parish have made for 25 years to the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Building up a parish is one of the hardest challenges Christians can face. It involves cooperation with other, sacrifice of our own desires and total commitment to God’s will.

Like a flower, a parish comes to be what it is through many stages. What starts off as a green bud gradually becomes a radiant and fragrant blossom, exploding with beautiful colors and captivating scent.

As any of us who have tended flowers know, it is not easy to keep healthy. They can never be taken for granted. Flowers need sun and rain, the right balance of fertilizers, and occasionally pesticides. What is true of plants is true of parishes, if they do not continue to constantly grow, they quickly die. New stems must come forth from the old ones, so that growth begets growth, and the plants build upon their previous seasons.

They must be tended to by a knowledgeable gardener, who knows when to let the plants throw forth shoots, and when to trim off dead branches. He waters and cultivates, pulling out weeds and planting new seedlings. With a watchful eye, he spots diseases and pests that can destroy growth and cripple a healthy plant.

For the last few years, Father Elias Ferzli has tended to this community, and I admire his dedicated service to God through his ministry to all of you. He has helped you, the good people of this community, get on the course set forth by the Gospel of our Lord. He has encouraged you in the Faith of your Fathers, the Holy Fathers who have proclaimed the Gospel from the beginning. He is a priest of the highest quality, and he will be here many, many years as this parish blossoms into the finest rose in the Spiritual Garden of this Diocese.
Keynote Address from the Right Reverend Bishop Joseph

Father Elias, I am confident in your talents as a physician and healer of the souls. Just as a doctor does not despair when his patients cry out in pain as he begins the treatments, I remind you to be long-suffering in the face of any adversity. After all, the treatment of a wound means we must often increase the pain of the patient for a short time, so that it will soon pass and the wound will disappear. The short-term pain will be forgotten once the patient is healed.

However, if we always try to find the ‘pain-free’ way to heal, we will get nowhere. If the wound is not treated for fear of the pain, it will slowly infect and kill the whole body. We cannot risk losing this beloved parish, and so I charge you, Father Elias, to heal the people, through education and care, and bring them into greater and deeper Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and His Body, the Church. God will not fail you.

Some are born into the Church, while others come as children and adults, yet we are all one family. We have one Father, the Lord God. We have one Savior, Jesus Christ. We have one Spirit, the Most Holy Spirit. We have one Mother, the Holy Church. We may come from Lebanon or Toronto or Edmonton, yet God loves all of us and desires to save all of us.

Each member of the family is like a petal in a flower. No one by himself is the flower, but a flower is the unity of many different parts. Some are colorful, while others are plain. Yet, every one of them is essential. As the flower grows, it builds up its existing parts while creating new ones.

Father Elias and I know that this parish has a wonderful future, so long as you continue to carry the message of the Gospel to the world around you and bring more and more people to the Holy Orthodox Faith. To do this, you must first be faithful to the Faith yourselves. Those of you who persevere in prayer, I urge you to continue on and encourage those who struggle with living out the Faith each day. If you desire God’s joy and peace at the center of this community, then you yourselves must let God into your hearts and be transformed by Him. Let God cleanse you of your sins, so that you may be radiant with His glory.

Just as the bee is attracted by the fragrance of the flower, people will be attracted to this community by its spiritual beauty and fresh growth. Allow God to prosper you by His grace, be open to the visitor and minister to the suffering. In loving others, you allow God to love you all the more.

You have much to share with the people of Canada. Do not think that you must ‘protect’ what you have. In fact, what you have will only increase if you share it with the community.

I rejoice that God has done a mighty work in building up this community, and I congratulate you for faithfully following Him. Never forget my love for all of you, and the joy we have in the Lord.

Congratulations on reaching a very impressive milestone.
May we all celebrate another 25 years together.

In loving memory of our beloved husband, father, and grandfather,

Atef Elias Gebran
(1943 - 2003)

Forever loved by his wife Samia Gebran, and children Marie, Nicoula, Toma (Tonya & Rheanna) and Essa.
In loving memory of our husband and father,
FRANK GEBRAN,
one of St. Philip’s founding fathers.

It was dad’s dream to see our church grow, so that the next generation would have a home to be welcomed, married, baptized, and blessed in. He was famous for saying “When they get married and have their own families, they will come back to the church.”

We hope to see our father’s vision of a strong dedicated community spirit continue through the ages.

As God wills.
